

ANNO DOMINI

President's Address

Dear Students,

Welcome to this year's edition of Anno Domini, Redeemer's annual yearbook. It's a privilege to be able to share with you the memories of your time at Redeemer.

The assembly of this annual publication is a significant undertaking and I want to commend the yearbook team for the work they have done to put together this yearbook. They have done excellent work and I ask that you join me in thanking them for their service.

As I reflect on the past year, I am reminded of the many reasons we have to celebrate. On the sports field, on the stage, in the studio, the lab and in the classroom good things have happened this year. Students and faculty have faithfully engaged in academic pursuits in the classroom and in the community beyond these walls. Sustained academic questioning contributed to spiritually rewarding conversations in classrooms, in residences, and throughout the campus. Through all this God has been shaping us and molding us into the people He wants us to be. And through this process students are coming to understand their calling in life.

But not every experience in life is positive. Even as we celebrate good things, we also recognize times of failure, of brokenness in relationships, and in loss. The leadership of the university is changing and the search for a new President is underway. For some change can be unsettling. But a time of change represents an opportunity for renewal. Change can be positive. We have launched a fundraising campaign that will help us to Renew, Retell, and Resound with the story of Redeemer, the story you see played out on these pages.

Whether you have completed your time at Redeemer or whether you are returning to complete your studies, I want to encourage you with the words of hope found in Philippians 1:6: where we read "...being confident in this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus".

I pray that God has used your time here, the formative events you've had, the friendships you've made, the laughter you've shared and the tears you've shed, to continue to shape you into the person He wants you to be. And in the years that follow, as you glance through the pages of this book, I hope you will be reminded of your time at Redeemer, and trust the pictures will bring back memories that you are able to cherish.

Yours in Christ,

Fred Verwoerd,
Interim President

The vision of Student Senate is to prayerfully partner with students to enable involvement and encourage service to students, Redeemer, and the wider community. Student Senate also grants funding for a variety of clubs and volunteer organizations, as well as for the student newspaper, The Crown, and yearbook, Anno Domini.

STUDENT SENATE

Students Serving Students

Providing opportunities for students to be involved beyond academic experiences, Senate encourages student involvement in a wide variety of activities and challenges them to broaden their education. Senate provides a forum for your concerns and ideas. If you see a need or have a great suggestion, Senate will help you make a difference.

Anno Domini is a group of students who work hard to bring the yearbook each year. They look through pictures of all the events that happen through the year and pick only the best ones to be kept forever.

The Crown is a student run newspaper for our university. It includes articles about what is going on around campus as well as in the community. And, of course, no newspaper would be complete without a puzzle or two and some humor.

The Crown also includes a section called "Humans or Redeemer" which includes pictures and stories of the people who we see every day, faculty, staff, and students.

Quest is a magazine made by Redeemer students to showcase the talent that there is on campus. This includes pictures and artwork, as well as short stories and poetry. It is then distributed throughout the city so others can see what Redeemer is all about, and as a way for the artists and authors to get their names out.

CHURCH IN THE BOX (CITB)

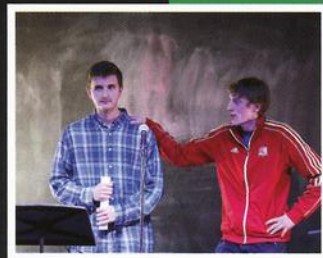

Church in the Box is a student-led, monthly worship service. Many teams work together to bring this ministry to the community: worship, welcome, prayer, and creative worship. Each service features a guest speaker, and all the services follow a theme for the year; this year the theme was Life Chats.

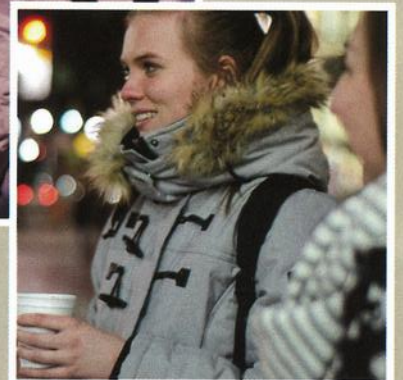

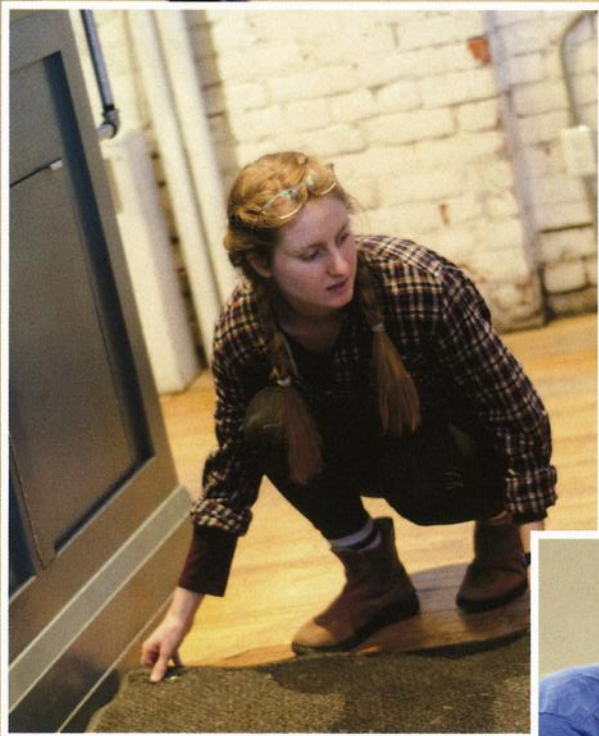

IDENTIFY, IDENTIGUY & HOTSPOT

Identify, Identiguy and Hotspot are different ministries that are student run at Redeemer. Identify is a womens ministry run by wormen for women, and Identiguy is a ministry for men run by the men. Hotspot is a ministry run on behalf of Studant Senate. These happen once a month and have a time of worship as well as a guest speaker.

France

Carlyse Mesicek

Rachel Hoekstra: The four months I spent studying in the South of France was one of the most incredible experiences in my life. The city was absolutely beautiful, full of old, historic streets lined with palm trees, and located just minutes away from the Mediterranean. It is called "the city where the sun never sets", and has over 300 days of sunshine a year. I am so thankful that I have had the opportunity to study abroad in Montpellier, and through this program I have made friends, created memories, and experienced things that surpassed any expectations.

Uganda

Kendra Slater: During my time in Uganda, I not only took classes at the Ugandan Christian University, but I was also able to live with an incredible Ugandan host family who taught me how to cook and live within their culture. When we were not in the classroom or with our host families, we were hiking to some of UG's most beautiful waterfalls, zip-lining through rainforests, going on safaris, and traveling around the beautiful country.
